The MURDERERS OF HIGH DOWNE, THE LILLIAN DREYFUS, DISCOVERED IN ST. LOUIS.—Arist was yesterday made of an employee in the barber's shop of Henry Gardiner, on Broadway, near the river, who is being held in custody in the murder of High Downie. This person has confessed that the murder was committed at 9 o'clock on Sunday evening, in Gardiner's barber shop, and that he, the barber, resigned himself to be shamed. The latter was permitted to tickle to his eyes, and then to be taken to the river, where he was burned in the stove, his body robbed and thrown where it was found. Three employees of Gardiner did the job. The remaining two have fled, and are being hunted for elsewhere under arrest.—St. Louis Democrat, 18th.
